Applicant, Laguna Lakes Community Association, Inc. (“Laguna Lakes”) opposes the dilatory, eleventh-hour request to (1) extend trial period and (2) treat “non-party deposition testimony” as evidence filed by Opposer, John Gerard Marino (“Marino”), and served upon opposing counsel, on the last day of his trial period after the close of business. For the following reasons, both requests must be denied and these consolidated opposition proceedings should be dismissed with prejudice for failure of Marino to prosecute under 37 CFR § 2.132(a). See TBMP § 534.02; see also contemporaneously filed Motion to Dismiss for Failure to Prosecute under 37 CFR § 2.132(a) [Doc. # 52]. This Response is supported by the Declaration of Chad R. Rothschild (attached hereto as Exhibit 1) (“Declaration”).

I. The Motion to Extend Trial Period Must Be Denied.

A. Marino’s Request to Extend Trial Period Should Be Denied Because It Is Necessitated By His Own Lack of Diligence and Unreasonable Delay and Thus Is Not Supported By “Good Cause.”

A “party moving to extend time must demonstrate that the requested extension of time is not necessitated by the party’s own lack of diligence or unreasonable delay in taking the required action during the time previously allotted therefor.” TBMP § 509.01(a) (citing in part Baron Philippe de Rothschild S.A. v. Styl-Rite Optical Mfg. Co., 55 USPQ2d 1848, 1851 (TTAB 2000))

(denying motion to extend discovery where counsel knew of unavailability of witness a month before, yet delayed until last day to seek an agreement on an extension of time). The pending, eleventh-hour motion filed by Marino offers no good cause to extend the foreseeable May 30, 2014 ending to his trial period set by the Board nearly four (4) months ago on February 3, 2014. See Doc. # 47 at p. 8. In fact, the only cause cited by Marino's counsel for the 10-day extension is his involvement in David Hopkins v. Geltech Solutions, Inc., where trial was to begin May 19, 2014. See Motion [Doc. # 50] at ¶1. However, several reasons underscore why the request is dilatory and must be denied.

First, Marino's counsel failed to inform the Board that he has been aware of the May 19 trial date in Hopkins for two (2) months, since March 18, 2014, when the Palm Beach Circuit Court special set the trial date. See Court Docket at pp. 69-70 (attached as Exhibit A to the Declaration); see also Declaration at ¶3. Instead of requesting an extension at that time (or even at the beginning of his trial period around May 1 when he was supposedly "involved in trial preparation"), Marino waited ten (10) weeks, and over seventy (70) days, to send counsel for Laguna Lakes an e-mail on the last day of Marino's trial period – with only two (2) hours until the close of business no less. See Declaration at ¶4 and 5/30/14 e-mail from Behren to Harders attached thereto as Exhibit B.

As in Baron Philippe de Rothschild S.A., Marino's counsel waited until the last day of the trial period to seek an agreement or extension of time. 55 USPQ2d 1848, 1851. Lead counsel for Laguna Lakes was out of the office, and obviously could not agree to an extension of Marino's trial period and other evidentiary issues on such short notice. See Declaration at ¶5 and 5/30/14 e-mail from Harders to Behren attached thereto as Exhibit C. Evidently, Marino's counsel does not plan to take any trial testimony, and seeks an extension merely to file “declarations.” See Motion [Doc. # 50] at ¶1. Placing aside the fact that declaration testimony of witnesses may only be provided by “written agreement of the parties,” see TBMP § 703.01(b) (bold added), why Marino’s counsel could not have prepared these “declarations” any earlier is a mystery. The requested extension of time must be denied because it is necessitated only by the lack of diligence and unreasonable delay of Marino in failing to prepare “declarations,” and obtain written agreement to use declaration testimony, earlier. See TBMP § 509.01(a).

Second, the Hopkins trial does not explain why Marino and his counsel could not prepare “declarations” in the six (6) weeks between February 3, 2014 (when his trial period was set) and March 18, 2014 (when Marino’s counsel was notified of the May 19 Hopkins jury trial). Again, the requested extension of time must be denied because it is necessitated only by the lack of diligence and unreasonable delay of Marino in failing to prepare “declarations,” and obtain written agreement to use declaration testimony, earlier. See TBMP § 509.01(a).

Third, Marino does not explain how long the May 19 special set jury trial in the Hopkins case was, and why he and his counsel could not prepare and file “declarations” after May 19, 2014 and before the end of his trial period. Marino bears the burden of demonstrating that his request for an extension is supported by “good cause.” See TBMP § 509.01. Arguments raised for the first time in a reply brief are generally considered waived. See Threshold.TV Inc. v. Metronome Enters. Inc., 96 USPQ2d 1031, 1035 (TTAB 2010). In this case, Marino failed to demonstrate in his moving paper why he and his counsel could not prepare and file “declarations” after May 19, 2014 and before the end of his trial period. The requested extension of time must be denied because it is necessitated by the lack of diligence of Marino’s counsel. See TBMP § 509.01(a).

All of these reasons underscore why the request for an extension of Marino's trial period, on the last day of the trial period, is dilatory and must be denied.

B. Any Extension of Time to File “Declarations” is Improper, and Must Be Denied, Given That the Parties Never Agreed in Writing to the Use of Declaration Testimony.

Despite knowing of the May 30, 2014 end to his trial period since February 3, 2014, Marino seeks to extend his trial period “to file declarations in this matter.” See Motion [Doc. # 50] at ¶1. However, declaration testimony of witnesses may only be provided into the record when agreed to in writing by the parties. See TBMP § 703.01(b) (bold added); see also Tri-Star Marketing LLC v. Nino Franco Spumanti S.R.L., 84 USPQ2d 1912, 1914 (TTAB 2007) (declaration cannot be submitted in lieu of testimony deposition absent a stipulation of the parties); Order Sons of Italy in America v. Memphis Mafia Inc., 52 USPQ2d 1364, 1365 n.3 (TTAB 1999) (“statement” with exhibits by defendant’s officer stricken where there was no agreement that defendant could file testimony in form of affidavit or declaration); Hard Rock Café Licensing Corp. v. Elsea, 48 USPQ2d 1400, 1403-04 n.9 (TTAB 1998) (no agreement; officer’s affidavit not considered). Laguna Lakes and Marino never agreed in writing that “the testimony of any witness or witnesses of any party may be submitted in the form of an affidavit or declaration.” TBMP § 703.01(b); see Declaration at ¶9. “Inasmuch as the parties did not enter into a written agreement to allow testimony by such means,” declaration testimony is “improper.” Tri-Star Marketing, LLC, 84 USPQ2d at 1914.

Given that the parties did not enter into any such written agreement, the Board is prohibited from considering any “declarations” Marino may file. See TBMP § 706 (“Evidence not obtained and filed in compliance with the rules of practice governing inter partes proceedings before the Board will not be considered by the Board.”). As such, there can be no “good cause” supporting an extension of Marino’s trial period for any amount of time; granting the request would simply be futile. See TBMP § 509.01 (providing that a party moving for an extension of time filed prior to expiration of his trial period must show “good cause”). Consequently, Marino’s request for “a ten-day enlargement of the trial period to file declarations in this matter” must be denied.

II. The Motion to Treat “Non-Party” Deposition Testimony as Evidence Must Be Denied.

A. Given There is No Stipulation of the Parties Approved by the Board, and No Exceptional Circumstances Exist per 37 CFR § 2.120(j), Marino is Not Entitled to File Non-Party Deposition Testimony.

“[N]o party may offer into evidence the discovery deposition of a nonparty witness, except by stipulation of the parties approved by the Board, or by order of the Board on motion.” TBMP § 529. A motion for leave to offer in evidence the discovery deposition of a nonparty witness must show “[s]uch exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice, to allow the deposition to be used.” Id.; see also 37 CFR § 2.120(j). Such a motion filed on the basis of exceptional circumstances “must be filed promptly after the circumstances claimed to justify use of the deposition become known.” Id.

Laguna Lakes never stipulated to the use of any discovery deposition testimony as trial evidence. See Declaration at ¶10. “[T]he differences between discovery and trial are substantial and are the basis of the expectations, plans and preparations of the parties.” Fischer Gesellschaft M.B.H. v. Molnar and Company, Inc., 203 USPQ 861, 1979 WL 24867 at *2-3 (TTAB 1979). As explained previously by the Board:

While discovery may proceed simultaneously for both parties, the trial periods are carefully separated so that only one party takes testimony during its assigned testimony period. Each party is accorded an opportunity not only to present testimony in support of its own case but also to meet and if possible refute the evidence adduced by its adversary. The difference in the timing of discovery and the timing or order of trial shows that there are basic differences in the purposes of these two separate phases of a proceeding. Discovery is the acquisition of information. Trial is the creation of the formal record upon which the proceeding will be decided.

Id. Mindful of these critical differences, Laguna Lakes never stipulated to the use of discovery deposition testimony as trial evidence. See Declaration at ¶10.

Further, the only purportedly exceptional circumstance cited by Marino is that “[t]here has already been considerable motion practice dedicated to these depositions, not to mention the time in taking these depositions. Allowing the use of the discovery depositions in this matter saves time and money of both parties.” See Motion [Doc. # 50] at ¶2. Ironical that Marino is now concerned about saving “time and money,” given the Board’s prior admonition that he and his counsel’s conduct has “not only delayed this matter but has wasted both the Board’s and [Laguna Lakes’] time and resources.” Doc. # 38 at p. 3. The “circumstance” cited by Marino is simply not “exceptional” as contemplated by 37 CFR § 2.120(j); if it were, depositions could be used as trial testimony in every proceeding in which there were depositions taken or motion practice regarding those depositions. In any event, the request is untimely as it was not “filed promptly” by Marino “after the circumstances claimed to justify use of the deposition became known.” Indeed, Marino knew of the “circumstance” as late as March 2014, and as early as late 2013; it is neither exceptional nor timely. The Board should deny Marino’s request to treat any non-party deposition testimony as evidence.

B. Marino Does Not Need Board Permission to File the Discovery Depositions of Patrick Tardiff and Robert Hajcek under 37 CFR § 2.120(j), and Any Neglect on Marino’s Part to Do So During His Trial Period is Inexcusable.

Despite the time available to Marino’s counsel both before and after he became aware of the continued May 19 trial date, he nevertheless “did nothing during [Marino’s] testimony period to further presentation of the merits of [Marino’s] position.” The Armor All v. Entech Corp.,

Opp. No. 109,490, 2001 WL 537140 at *2 (TTAB 2001) (affirming, on reconsideration, denial of motion to extend testimony period for failure to establish good cause). During his trial period, Marino and his counsel could have, but simply failed to, enter some of the purported “non-party [discovery] deposition testimony” into the record as evidence. See, e.g., 37 CFR § 2.120(j) (bold added) (quoted by Marino and explaining that the “discovery deposition of a party or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director or managing agent of a party, or a person designated by a party pursuant to Rule 30(b)(6) . . . of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, may be offered in evidence by an adverse party”). The failure to do so underlies the dilatory nature of the request.¹

Note that Marino only requested an extension “to file declarations in this matter,” not deposition testimony. In other words, Marino did not require additional time to file discovery deposition testimony. Per 37 CFR § 2.120(j), Marino does not need to wait for Board permission to file the discovery deposition testimony of Patrick Tardiff or Robert Haijcek. Marino is improperly relying on the Board to grant his “motion to treat non-party [discovery] deposition testimony” either out of ignorance of Board rules or to inappropriately delay this matter further. Such neglect on the part of Marino and his counsel is inexcusable. See Pioneer Inv. Servs. Co. v. Brunswick Assocs. Ltd. P'ship, 507 U.S. 380, 392 (1993) (“inadvertence, ignorance of the rules, or mistakes construing the rules do not usually constitute ‘excusable’ neglect”); see also TBMP § 509.01 (discussing that when a party fails to act during the time allowed therefor, the moving party must show its failure to act was the result of “excusable neglect”); TBMP § 509.01(b)(1) (citing Pioneer).

¹ As of the filing of this Response, Marino still has not filed ANY notice of reliance. Indeed, even his Pretrial Disclosures (attached as Exhibit D to the Declaration) also were untimely – served on May 1, 2014, instead of April 15, 2014 as ordered in the Board’s scheduling order (Doc. #47 at p. 7); even so, the Pretrial Disclosures failed to disclose the use of any discovery deposition testimony. See Marino’s Pretrial Disclosures (attached as Exhibit D to the Declaration).

The Board should not permit Marino to make an end-run around the Board rules to file discovery deposition testimony out of rule to support his case. In this case, Patrick Tardiff was offered as a Rule 30(b)(6) deponent. See Doc. # 47 at p. 1 (Board order observing that Marino “conducted a 30(b)(6) discovery deposition of [Laguna Lakes’] corporate representative, Mr. Patrick Tardiff, on August 26, 2013”). Furthermore, Robert Hajicek was a director on the Laguna Lakes’ board at the time his first deposition was taken on August 23, 2013 (see Exhibit E to the Declaration at page 4, lines 18-23), and was also offered as a Rule 30(b)(6) deponent on March 3, 2014 (see Exhibit F to the Declaration at page 3, lines 21-24). See also Declaration at ¶¶7-8. The Board should refuse to consider said discovery deposition testimony as part of Marino’s case as untimely. See Chemetron Corp. v. Self-Organizing Systems, Inc., 166 USPQ 495, 496 n.2 (TTAB 1970) (discovery depositions not in evidence since notice of reliance not filed); cf. American Skein & Foundry Co. v. Stein, 165 USPQ 85, 85 (TTAB 1970) (discovery deposition inadmissible where it was timely filed but not accompanied by notice of reliance).

Marino cannot even follow Board rules he himself quoted. With respect to Tardiff and Hajicek, granting Marino’s request “to have these non-party [discovery] depositions treated as testimony and evidence in this matter” (see Motion at ¶2) should be denied because it merely rewards Marino’s blatant ignorance of and failure to follow Board rules and procedure (i.e. nothing prevented Marino from timely filing these discovery depositions during his trial period without the Board’s permission). See also TBMP § 706 (“Evidence not obtained and filed in compliance with the rules of practice governing inter partes proceedings before the Board will not be considered by the Board.”).

III. Conclusion.

The Board should deny Marino's request to extend his trial period, deny his motion to treat "non-party" deposition testimony as evidence, and dismiss these consolidated oppositions with prejudice and enter judgment against Marino.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Chad R. Rothschild

Couple of issues in this matter. The trial period is ending today and because I was in the process of preparing for a jury trial over the past couple of weeks I am going to ask whether you guys will agree to a ten day extension of time to file declarations in this matter. Obviously we would be willing to extend you any similar reasonable extensions of time.

Please also confirm that we both can file testimony of friendly witnesses by declaration;

Please also confirm whether you are in agreement that if for some reason the declaration is of a witness who has not been deposed that both sides would have an opportunity to depose that witness during the rebuttal period.

Please get back to me as soon as you can on these issues so I know what kind of Motion to file with the Board. Thanks.
